NEWS GATHERED FROM THE COUNTY

SAN GREGORIO

LA HONDA, August 25.—Zanone & Sons' threshing outfit of La Honda, with all its merry old crew, are once more to the front. Tom Zanone is captain; Matt Zanone, umpire; Frank Zani, right field; and Frank Guerra, short stop. Other characters by members of the company.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Chapin of Redwood have been here for a few days. In company with Robert Letts, Dr. Chapin killed a fine buck on Sunday.

Mrs. R. Fisher and child of San Mateo are registered at Hotel La Honda. Mrs. Zoe Thorpe and son Bud, and Miss Etta Kelting of Redwood, after a few weeks' stay at Birdhaven cottage, have returned home.

Newton Peck, horticultural commissioner of San Mateo county, was here on business connected with his office the latter part of the week.

The Bear Flag is conspicuous at Camp Mayfield. The pleasant occupants are Leon J. Bauchou and Wm. L. George, members of Palo Alto parlor, who are here to spend two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fehr of Redwood have taken a cottage here for the winter.

Mrs. T. E. Fowler and family, Mrs. H. Moore and family, and Mrs. A. P. Salberg and pretty baby, all of Redwood are at Hayward's Lodge.

Many autos passed over our new roads on Sunday. Of course it will need much attention; and we know with Geo. Boone as road master, the maintenance of the highway is in competent hands.

Remember La Honda day at the Exposition—September 9th.

Sidney Martenstein and daughter Marion, and John F. Fells of Woodside, the distinguished angler, motored up the latter part of the week. The great fisherman comes here with several rods on September 1st.

Geo. W. Hall, city superintendent of schools of San Mateo and T. C. Scherwin of Visitation Valley, spent Sunday here.

Carolyn Read of the Seaside school and Irma Donahue of Bellvale school visited our teacher, Miss Florence Brown this week.

"The Stambaugh street gang" of Redwood, charming ladies and jolly gentlemen, prominent in that city, came up Sunday in Dearborn's truck and had a mighty fine time in our beautiful woods. Dinner was served al fresco. There were twenty-five merry makers—count 'em—but comprising only four families. Theodore Roosevelt take notice. No race suicide here.

DOINGS AT LA HONDA

SAN GREGORIO, August 25.—The untimely death of John Francis, which occurred at Redwood City last Sunday morning has cast a gloom over the little village where the young man was so well and favorably known. A pair of fractious colts, drawing a large wagon, ran away throwing Mr. Francis to the ground and so seriously injuring him that he survived the accident but a short time. He was born in Portugal 37 years ago, and is survived by an aged father and mother, who reside in Portugal and by several sisters and brothers, all residents of this vicinity. The funeral took place Tuesday at Pescadero and was attended by a large number of friends and relatives. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved relatives.

"Chet" Barker, played right field with the Olympic Club last Saturday afternoon in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Arnold, Mrs. Joe Sequera and Manuel Sequera, motored to the coast side from San Mateo last Sunday and spent the day with friends in San Gregorio.

The social dance, given at Bell's hall last Saturday evening was a success in every way.

S. A. Ponce and family were visitors in San Jose last Sunday.

DRAWN TO HIS DEATH WHEN TEAM RUNS AWAY

John Francis, who with his brother, Isadore, farmed the Gilbert ranch above the Bear Gulch Water Company's property, was so badly injured last Saturday, when his team ran away with him that he died the following morning at the Huling's sanitarium, in this city.

Francis was hauling hay on his ranch and in going down a steep hill, the heavily loaded wagon slipped and the front of it struck the horses, causing them to become frightened and run away. Francis became entangled in the lines and was dragged for a considerable distance along the ground and finally through a barbed wire fence.

Bleeding from many wounds and in an unconscious condition, the man was rushed to the hospital in this city where he died without regaining consciousness.

The body was removed to the Crowe undertaking establishment and later to Pescadero, where a brother lives. The funeral was held at that place Tuesday. Francis came from Portugal about ten years ago.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC SHORT OF TELEGRAPH OPERATORS

The heavy passenger business, caused by travel to the Exposition, has forced the Southern Pacific Company to increase their telegraph force until they are unable to find sufficient telegraphers to man the new offices they have opened along the line; and it is impossible for them to furnish relief for telegraphers and agents who want to lay off to take in the "big show."

MANY MOURN DEATH OF YOUNG WIFE AND MOTHER

The passing away at an early hour Saturday morning of Mrs. Agnes Jane Nichols, the young wife of A. R. Nichols, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Kerr, was a great shock to her many friends in this city, where she was born and where she grew to womanhood.

Mrs. Nichols died at the Peninsula hospital, Palo Alto, following the birth of a baby girl on August 17th. Her death was a severe blow to her young husband, her parents, brothers and sisters, who only the day before were happy in the assurance that the crisis had passed and the young mother would live. The prostrated husband and family have the deep sympathy of the entire community in their sad hour.

Mrs. Nichols was born in Redwood City 18 years ago. She attended the Notre Dame Academy, from which institution she graduated in 1912. A year and a half ago, she was married to A. R. Nichols of the E. P. Heise Grocery store. Possessed of a happy and cheerful disposition, Mrs. Nichols made friends wherever she went. Everybody who knew her loved her. She had a remarkably sweet soprano voice and for a number of years led the choir of Mount Carmel Catholic church.

The funeral took place Monday morning from the home of the parents on Webster street. Mount Carmel church, where a requiem mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock, was crowded to the doors with sorrowing relatives and friends. The casket was completely covered with beautiful floral pieces. The interment was in Holy Cross cemetery, Colma, by automobile.

Besides the husband and the parents, Mrs. Nichols leaves the following brothers and sisters: James F. Joseph V., Eugene D., George, Nellie, Irene, Francis and Martha Kerr, and Mrs. F. A. Nelson.

The sorrowing relatives of Mrs. Nichols desire to thank their many friends for their kind expressions of sympathy and floral offerings during their late bereavement.

REDWOOD WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE AT FRESNO

Word was received here last Friday telling of the suicide of Mrs. Fred Moore on her husband's ranch near Fresno. Mrs. Moore was formerly the wife of John Armstrong of this city, but the pair were divorced some time ago. She married Moore, following her arrest early this year on a charge of failure to provide for her young children.

At the time of her arrest Mrs. Armstrong was working in a hotel at Fresno and Moore who is a prosperous farmer of that place became interested in her case and came to Redwood City and assisted the woman in having the charges against her dismissed. As soon as she secured her final decree of divorce, Mrs. Armstrong married Moore and the two had been living in Fresno since and apparently happy. No cause for the suicide has been given. Mrs. Moore was a daughter of Robert Gibson of this city.

Big Buck for Dr. Chapin
Dr. J. E. Chapin demonstrated that he can do something else beside prescribing disagreeable medicine for sick people. Last Sunday he went deer hunting with West Bartley and Bob Letts in the Alpine district, above La Honda, and Doc succeeded in bringing down one of the largest bucks killed this season.

AUTO VICTIMS STILL IN PRECARIOUS CONDITION

Late reports from the Buena Vista hospital in San Francisco, where the five victims of last Thursday's automobile smash-up were taken, state that C. Marabito and his sister, Mrs. Starniolo, the two most seriously injured, are still in a precarious condition. The man is suffering from a fractured skull and the woman from a basal fracture of the skull. The attending physicians are holding out some hopes for their recovery.

The accident occurred on the state highway near the Saunders place. The automobile party was on its way from San Jose to San Francisco. They were traveling at a high rate of speed, and in attempting to avoid a collision with a delivery wagon of Stafford Brothers, Marabito, who was at the wheel, lost control of the machine and it skidded into a telegraph pole. All five occupants were thrown out and landed on their heads.

Assistance was quickly rendered the injured and they were rushed in a passing automobile to Mrs. Huling's sanitarium, where Drs. Ross, Dykes and Chapin were called and rendered all the aid possible. It was thought at first that Marabito's and Mrs. Starniolo's injuries would prove fatal. The family physicians from San Francisco ordered the removal of the injured to San Francisco, where they were taken to the Buena Vista hospital.

As a sequel to the first disaster, the car, which was a new Ford, caught fire and burned a while before bystander threw a lighted match underneath the leaking gasoline tank causing an explosion.

YE WISE OLD OWL

CITIES like Humans possess PERSONALITY

And tired Human-kind, wise in DOLLAR wisdom feels his chemistry drawn to the City whose SPIRIT OF FRIENDSHIP makes its appeal to his greater instinct.

And he abides there with his LEDGER AND TILL and marvels that somehow, of all the spots on EARTH this MART is home to him. He makes his meager clientele of friends and vast concourse of enemies.

But the PERSONALITY of HIS CITY ILLUSIONS him with dictatorial severity, shackling Him with contentment and depriving him of the invitation to seek happiness elsewhere.

Therefore in BUSY BARTER and SAGACIOUS SALE he finds SUCCESS FROM HAPPINESS.

And so, whereas, he chides his CLERK and bies him to his CHOS-EN CHURCH on SUNDAY.

He brings his children to maturity with the Tang of the SEA'S SALT MARSHES in their nostrils, for, lo, 'tis a SEABOARD CITY—and Their Adolescence is obliterated in excellent schools successfully supported by the Assessor's TAXATION of their FATHER'S MONEY MADNESS

THE PERSONALITY OF THIS CITY IS SO REAL A THING And its SPIRIT OF FRIENDSHIP so STATIC and VICARIOUS that you DARE NOT

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

The movement looking to the greater planting of trees and foliage along streets, avenues and boulevards is to be highly commended and should not be impeded in its growth, but rather accelerated, we believe, by observance of one very important point. This, whether lovers of nature are properly enthusiastic on the subject or not, is an age of automobiles, and these machines take very well shaded streets, avenues and boulevards. Those who own cars and those who operate them are subject to severe criticism if they drive them, or permit them to be driven, carelessly. It is only fair that the automobiles should be met half way in the work of roadway beautification. That is, it is only fair that the landscape gardener should plan to make the view at corner approaches
as open as possible.

PRISON REFORM TRIALS

Men of the type of Thomas Mott Osborne do not, it may well be assumed, enter upon their tasks as administrators of prisons or penitentiaries with any illusions about the future. They have theories that, as theories, run counter to much of the punitive policy of prison administration, self-discipline and trust as between inmates and also as between inmates and prison officials. Practically, their effort is to Christianize, at least in some degree, an agency of society which Christendom, until a comparatively late day, has administered in a barbaric or severely retribu-tive and hardening way.

Champions of a reform of this character expect opposition, and get it the more surely where the type of civilization is old and fixed and where radicalism, even when in behalf of human welfare, is under suspicion. It is not without significance that the methods and ideals for which Mr.
Osborne has recently been attacked have been tested and in operation in several cities and states of the west for some time past. But he has ventured to challenge a prison system that in the Empire State has too often been administered as a per-quisite for the profit of politicians.

Any intimation, therefore, that state and city prisons are not the rightful prey of politicians and that they cannot be made sources of political or pecuniary profit, arouses enemies against innovators who conceive of places of detention as existing primarily to enable society to study the best way of making the law-breaker law-abiding. Wardens with such ideals of help are not wanted by persons who would exploit prison labor, or who would gain wealth by traffic in forbidden things, or who have ways of forcing their kinkles or henchmen on prison staffs.

All the prophets were quite safe,
therefore, as the Christian Science Monitor pointedly remarked, who predicted precisely such open and veiled attacks as Warden Osborne of Sing Sing prison has recently been undergoing and in which he has been afforded an opportunity of finding out who are his real friends and who are not. Fortunately for the situation Governor Whitman has manifested a disposition to insist upon fair play for the warden. He sees that simple justice to Warden Osborne demands that he be given every opportunity to meet his accusers face to face and that the issues be determined fairly.

Neither Warden Osborne nor the friends who are rallying to his support will dispute with the critics who fairly charge him with some official mistakes—such as innovators are likely to make when first given power. But this is not the real issue. Warden Osborne is the symbol of a fiercer era of social dealing with the law-breaker, and by his candor and consideration for them and their condition he has called forth the best that is in the men at Sing Sing. He has begun to humanize a department of government which, at its best, as usually administered, is mechanical and arbitrary.

sented South City Lodge, L. O. O. M., view, handsomely framed, of the

a fine piece of work, making a desirable addition to the club room.

While at the convention Mr. Mc-Sweeney had the pleasure of assisting in the initiation of W. J. Bryan, former Secretary of State. He says Brother Bryan rode the goat with becoming grace and is proud of having

Their married life has been an unusually happy one, although interspersed with the usual joy and sorrows that come to everyone. TWO COAST SIDE SCHOOLS VISITED BY RELIEF CORPS

Pupils at Laguna and Halfmoon Bay Given Silk Flags

Continuing their plans for instilling the spirit of patriotism into the minds and hearts of the younger generation, members of Gen. George S. Evans Womens Relief Corps of this city last Wednesday journeyed to the coast-side and presented handsome silk flags to two more of the public schools of the county. Leaving here Wednesday morning, shortly after 8 o'clock, in Dearborn's large motor truck, which had been chartered for the occasion, the trip was made over the mountains, the first stop being made at the recently reopened school at Laguna. Here, although but short notice of the coming of the ladies had been given, the party was most graciously received by the teacher, Miss Beckwith, and her little band of pupils. Following the reception the flag was presented to the school and the flag was presented by Mrs. J. E. Harris, patriotic instructor of the Corps.

From Laguna the trip was continued to Halfmoon Bay, where the handsome public school building at that place was visited. Here the ladies were made welcome by the principal, Prof. W. L. Stuckey, and escorted to the assembly room of the school, where all of the classes were assembled for their reception. At this school the flag was presented to the primary class, the younger pupils being selected for the first honors. Replying to the remarks of presentation by Mrs. Harris, the thanks of the class were returned to the visitors by Miss Dekey, the class teacher. Following this presentation a pleasant recognition of the honor conferred upon the school was shown by Miss Vallejo, one of the teachers, who, on behalf of her pupils presented Mrs. Harris with a handsome bouquet of flowers, garnered from the grounds of the school. With the patriotic duties of the day completed, the party adjourned to the beach, where a splendid picnic lunch was enjoyed.

Those who composed the party were: Mesdames: Nichols, Harris, Emma Winter, Geary, Dearborn, Mary Winter, Coleman, Hahr, Jacobus, Glennan, Murray, Bentley, Vincent and Osborne, and Miss Ward.

Chase For the Seals

There is a persistent rumor afloat that Harold Chase the local pitcher, will be signed by Boss Wolverton of the San Francisco Coast League to report next spring. Justin Fitzgerald was a local visitor last Monday and had quite a conference with Ray Griffin, manager of the local team. What was said is unknown as Griffin refuses to discuss the conversation and refuses to say anything about the matter except that Fitzgerald "will be here again."

Ladies Guild of the Church of the Nativity and the St. Elizabeth's Sewing Society. The fever of the exposition year has its hold upon the ladies, and the spirit of California to put forth its very best exhibits is theirs. The display in the various booths will accordingly surpass anything shown in past bazaars. The Push-Cart Fair of this Saturday afternoon is preliminary to the carnival-bazaar. The booths in the bazaar will be modeled after the carts of the fair and the charming and unapproachable array of beauty, ability and sweet persuasiveness that will make the process of separating you from your coin one of the most delightful experiences of your life. The "Daily Clatter," the official organ of the bazaar will acquaint you with further details. "The Daily Clatter" will begin the publication of its third volume next week. That announcement should be sufficient to make you rush to get your advertisement in its columns or your name on its subscription list. The perusal of its columns will supply you with all the news you need to know; entertain you with hidden humor of life; and above all fill you with pleasurable anticipations of the joy in store for you at Nativity Hall, Menlo Park on the evening of Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week, the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th of September. These are the dates of the great carnival-bazaar you are so eagerly enquiring about.

Atherton Wood, Atherton, the beautiful gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Byre, are "En Fete" for the Push Cart Fair this Saturday afternoon. The very capable management last year of this novel form of church benefit established the push cart fair as an institution of peninsular social life, to be looked forward to annually. The good taste, energy and her coterie of enthusiastic workers give promise of still greater success this year. A guarantee of the highly appreciable and very varied form of entertainment to be offered the guests of the Fete today is had in the following list of cards and their fair attendants. Candy carts—Mesdames Christina, Mary and Barbara Donohoe. Fruit and flower cart—Miss Elena Eyre. Grab cart—Mrs. Harry Sullivan. Mrs. Milo F. Kent and the Mesdames Evelyn and Genevieve Cunningham. IMPROVEMENTS FOR HIGHLANDS STREETS

Improvement Club Elects New Officers and Starts Term With Bright Prospects

Before the first of the year more than $20,000 will have been spent by the George H. Irving company in improving the streets of Redwood Highlands, according to an announcement made at a meeting of the Redwood Highlands Improvement Club held last Tuesday night. Irving declared that at the last meeting of the directors of his corporation they set aside that amount and directed that work be started immediately so that the rainy weather would not find the new residents of the Highlands without means of reaching the paved sections. It is the intention of the company to finish the paving of Brewster avenue to the town limits and to build cement sidewalks on all the streets in the section now being built up. The expenditure of this large sum will mean much for Redwood as it assures the distribution of coin among a large force of laborers at a time when labor usually complains of idleness.

New officers were elected at the meeting of the Improvement Club, as follows: E. T. McGottigan, president; Dan Stafford, vice president; and Mrs. C. C. Chapman, secretary-treasurer.

The following committees have been appointed: Executive; Messrs. McGottigan, Stafford, Drake, Lloyd and O'Brien. Streets; Messrs. Chapman, Larsen and Hagenberger.

Entertainment and feature; Walter Baker, B. P. W. Pagen, Dr. Moody, Miss Girwin and Mrs. T. J. Schuyler. Mosquito district; Messrs. Gunther, Merrill and Bennett. Fire protection; Messrs. Drake, O'Connell and Northrup. Lighting; Messrs. Esneau, Root and Evans.

School; Messrs. Lloyd and L. Heiner and Mesdames Gunther, Drake and McGottigan.

Fifty of the new residents of the Highlands signed the roll of the Club, making it one of the strongest clubs down the peninsula.

ASSESSOR INSTALLS NEW METHOD OF OFFICE WORK

County Assessor C. D. Hayward is installing a new assessment system in his office at the court house. Hereafter the assessment rolls will be smaller and all descriptions will be numbered. The descriptions of the property will be kept on a card number and by a cross number and system the lot, block and area will be shown. In writing the tax description all that will be needed will be the number of the card and when necessary this card will show all of the required information. In addition all transfers of the property will be shown under the same number so the system will aid materially when the records are searched to prove title.

JURY CENSURES AUTO DRIVER'S CARELESSNESS

Coroner W. A. Brooke held an inquest on the body of the unfortunate young woman who was killed in an automobile accident at Five Points on Wednesday morning. The jury censured the chauffeur, Fred Stockritter, for his carelessness. The remains of the young woman were shipped to her home in Port de House, Ontario, Canada late Thursday evening by the James Crowe company.

Miss McGrath was a member of an automobile party on a sightseeing trip down the peninsula. The party which included Mrs. W. P. O'Neill, wife of Lieutenant-Governor O'Neill of Indiana and other members of the O'Neill family, were in a large Haynes touring car and were proceeding south on the highway.

The driver of the car, Fred Stockritter, attempted to pass in between another car and a large hay wagon, both of which were coming toward him. A platform projecting from the back of the hay wagon struck Miss McGrath, who was riding in the rear seat of the Haynes car, full across the chest crushing the lungs and heart and killing her instantly. The other occupants of the car were not aware of what had occurred until the machine had sped on several hundred yards. The unfortunate woman was rushed to Mrs. Huling's sanitarium, but Dr. Dykes, who was quickly summoned, found that death had been instantaneous.

ANOTHER CLOSE CALL AT DANGEROUS CROSSING

Henry G. Finlay and John McCrea, young son of Professor S. P. McCrea, both connected with the county surveyor's office, miraculously escaped from instant death yesterday morning when attempting to cross the railroad while crossing at Beech street in this city. They were seated in a Ford car when the north bound train due here at 9:24 o'clock dashed by. As they appeared at the crossing they saw the approaching train almost upon them. They jumped from the automobile leaving it to crash against the engine of the train. It was almost completely demolished. The young men escaped uninjured. The crossing at Beech street is a dangerous one, several accidents having already occurred there. Mr. McCrea and Mrs. Finlay are thanking their lucky stars on their miraculous escape.

VISIT OF PIONEER OFFICER RECALLS MANY INCIDENTS

Interesting Recollections of Pioneer Street Travel

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hughes have returned from Lebanon, Oregon, to spend the winter at Santa Cruz. For the past week they have been renewing old acquaintances here. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and family came to Redwood City in 1876 and resided here until 1896. Mr. Hughes was for a number of years street superintendent and he labored hard to have a decent system of thoroughfares provided for the town. During his time the winter rains would produce a mud of such wonderful consistency that it was a common occurrence for farmers who were in town on business to lose a boot or two in the mud and Jacob and Henry Hughes did a thriving boot and rubber business in rainy weather. During the winter of '79, an empty hay wagon was stuck in the mud on Main street near Joe Perry's and sank out of sight before a rescuing party could salvage it and it was considered a miracle that the driver had been able to save himself and his two horses. Naturally having seen conditions such as these, Mr. Hughes is much pleased with the progress Redwood City has made and he has had a most enjoyable time exchanging reminiscences with the old timers who are still here.

A Little "Bagtime"

"In This Gloaming" "In A Little House Upon The Hill" "Jane" was "Dreaming" of "When It's Moonlight in May" and "Over The Waves" in her "Nights of Gladness" she and "He Would Row, Row, Row" both singing "The Song That Stole My Heart Away." "A Packard and a Ford" drew up outside and "Casey Jones" was heard to exclaim "Are You the O'Reilly That Keeps This Hotel?" "Oh My" "Just A Moment" said "Jane" he lives "Just Round The Corner from Broadway" "Down in Bom-Bombay" "The Beautiful Sea" according to "My Chain of Memories." This man, said "Casey Jones" is "The Military Band" from "The Shores of Italy" when upon the "Venetian Rose." "Along Came Ruth" with "Mammy's Little Angel Child" and humming the "Croony Melody" at which they all exclaimed "Oh What A Beautiful Baby?" You see, Jones continued, "I'm On My Way to Dublin Bay" but will leave "On The 5:15" to be "Down at the Barbecue" no "Music With My Meals," "A La Carte" but "Jane" "Why Not Sing The Wearin' of The Green" you will soon be "Dancing The Blues Away" at Redwood City "The Land of My Best Girl" "Where I Want To Live" as a guest of the Young Bachelors on September 11th. At what? "At The Ball, That's All" and "If That's Your Idea of A Wonderful Time" just come and see "Everybody Rag With Me."

Schaefer Given Sentence

William Schaefer was sentenced to ten years yesterday, this being the full extent of the law. He was convicted of a similar offense sometime ago in Solano county, but was paroled about the first of the year. He has still under the old term to serve seven years. As the new sentence will have to run concurrently with the old one, he will be in the same position as he was before the trial, so in any event all he will have to serve will be seven years, as when he reaches the seventh year he will have complied with both sentences, assuming of course, that he preserves his credits. Under the new sentence he will be entitled to a parole so he is better off than he was before. The first jury stood eleven to one for acquittal, and the last jury was six to six on the first ballot, but finally reached a verdict of guilty.

CHASE PITCHES A GREAT BALL FOR REDWOOD TEAM

Local Boys Spring Surprise on the College City Visitors

Accompanied by a big bunch of rooters from Palo Alto and Menlo Park and a coast league pitcher by the name of "Lefty" Russell the baseball team of the former town arrived to do things to the locals, but after the "doing" was "did," the visitors were a sad, sad crew and Mr. Russell was giving thanks that Boss Rowdy Elliott was far away.

Chase for Redwood pitched great ball, fanning thirteen and allowing eight hits all widely scattered, except in the first inning. The locals played errorless ball behind their tall gunner and when he wasn't sending the university town boys back to the bench via three strikes, his fellow workmen were pulling off all kinds of fielding stunts.

Palo Alto scored in the first inning a wally and three hits, bringing three runs. It was right here that the locals proceeded to get after Russell and before the first inning was finished seven runs had scored, errors mixed with hits and walks did the deed. From then on "Lefty" did not have a chance.

The final score was 10 to 5, giving Redwood the second game of the series and having the count stand one and one. Immediately after Sunday's game the managers of the two teams, Jack Schilling for Palo Alto and Ray Griffin for Redwood, arranged to play the third and deciding game of the series at Redwood on Sunday, September 19th.

Plays Ball in Alaska

Robert Fox, formerly pitcher for the local ball team, is pitching great ball this year for the Treadwell nine at Juneau.

Clippings from papers from Juneau speak glowingly of his pitching. In a recent championship game between the Treadwell nine and the Juneau team only seven hits and two runs were made off Fox's pitching. Mr. Fox is considered the best pitcher in Alaska.

JUDGE BUCK DECIDES PECULIAR DAMAGE CASE

Judge Buck, on Monday rendered an opinion in the case of A. Demartini against L. Arata and others. The action is an appeal case from the justice court of the Third Township. Following is Judge Buck's opinion in full:

"This is an appeal case from the Justice's Court of the Third Township of this county and involves less than $50.00. To my mind it is easy of solution. The defendants sold to plaintiff a hog of the weight of over six hundred pounds. The hog was delivered by defendants to plaintiff at Burlingame and killed, scaled and hung up until the following day without removing the entrails from the hog or even cutting it open, at which time the hog was in such bad condition that it had to be destroyed. There was some expert testimony on both sides, good as to the points presented but none going to the question as to the result—if a hog was killed and left in the manner as above described. The Court suggested calling in some practical butcher who could readily solve this matter but no agreement was reached upon that point by the attorney and the Court will decide the matter upon the evidence presented and general knowledge applied to such matters. In the first place the entrails of the hog should have been removed by the plaintiff, as soon as the hog was killed or as soon thereafter as practicable. No expert testimony is needed upon this point. Not doing that the plaintiff must suffer the consequences. The Court's general knowledge is that it is not good business, is not safe and is not the custom to pursue the course the plaintiff did when he killed this hog in allowing it to remain until the following day before he removed the entrails. The plaintiff must pay for the hog rendered valueless by plaintiff's actions in caring for it after it was killed. There was an agreement between the attorneys as to the sum due as it was not brought fully to the Court's attention this matter will come up at 1:30 o'clock P. M. of Thursday next to hear the attorneys upon this point."
